Selenium Library

Lab 9

Implement a Robot Framework test that adds three cars to the car dealer web site. The test must take two screenshots of the car dealer site: one from the front page before cars are added and one after all cars have been added.

Note that the website test container has no data persistence. Database is cleared every time when you start the container.

Submit the .robot-file(s) to Oma and show your test to the instructor.